HOLY SYNOD EXCITED.

Is Anxious to Bury Tolstoy.

Owing to Intense Feeling in Russia Church Seeks to Honor Dead.

Frontic Efforts Made to Find Excuse for Holding Religious Funeral.

May Make Philosopher's Visit to Sister in Convent a Solution.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The body of Count Leo Tolstoy who died this morning at Astapova, without being able to recognize his wife, who had been at his bedside since midnight, will be transported tonight to Yasnaya Polyana.

There is no definite decision in regard to the funeral, difficulties having arisen in connection with the ecclesiastical ceremony on account of Count Tolstoy's attitude toward the Holy Synod.

When dying Count Tolstoy refused to admit a priest to his presence in spite of the efforts of the Holy Synod, thus proving that he had no desire to be reconciled with the church. This, in the eyes of the ecclesiastical authorities, renders a religious ceremony impossible.

However, in view of the feeling aroused throughout Russia on this subject, the Holy Synod will consider whether the visit paid by Count Tolstoy to his sister who is a nun in a convent, could not be regarded as a tendency to return to the church.

If this contention is accepted the problem will be solved in accordance with the wishes of most Russians. The government intends, it is announced, to cooperate with the church in the enforcement of its decision, although both the Emperor and Stolypin, the Premier, have indicated their desire that the great Russian be buried with the Russian people.

At Moscow the police forbade the funeral from suspending their performance because of the death of Count Tolstoy. Nevertheless the play-brothers were closed as the actors refused to appear.

WANTS TEETH FOR TURKEY.

Iowan Requests Dentist to Lend Him Set Until After Thanksgiving.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
MASON CITY (Ia.), Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the prominent dentists of this city received a letter yesterday from a man in Floyd county, written in a poor hand. The substance of the letter was as follows:

"Can you let me have a pair of false teeth? My teeth are very bad and most of them are gone. I want them to use for Thanksgiving. I will take good care of them and they won't get broken or hurt. I will stand good for them. I will send them back right after Thanksgiving."

bought, where Count Leo Tolstoy lies. Many of them knelt beside the bier. The silence at times was broken by orthodox chants for the repose of the dead.

Countess Tolstoy sat beside the body for hours.

"The light of the world is out," she said repeatedly. She left but only to attend matins in the school chapel, expecting that a requiem would be sung. When informed this was not permitted, she wept.

Tolstoy left a written wish that he be buried without pomp, wreaths or rites, under "poverty oak" on a hillside at Yasnaya Polyana, where he played as a child, and where the peasants were accustomed to congregate. The funeral will be held on Tuesday, and the police have just been mobilized to prevent public demonstration.

Tolstoy's death occurred peacefully, at 6 o'clock Sunday morning. It was due directly to heart failure following inflammation of the lungs.

He quitted his home and family ten days ago to find solitude in the belief that the hand of death was already upon him.

True to his unswerving and uncompromising search for truth, he died as he had lived without reconciliation with the church, his dying words breathing sympathy for afflicted humanity.

"Many millions in the world are suffering," he said, "and you are concerned for me." Only the physicians were present in the room at the time of his death, members of his family, including his wife, having been admitted previously. Tolstoy was then unconscious and never revived.

Members of the clergy in the last days made pressing attempts to gain entrance to the sick room, with a view of inducing him to return to the arms of the church, but the doctors repulsed them on the ground that their patient was too ill to receive them.

The Emperor and his ministers are anxious that Tolstoy shall be buried with the rites of the church, but the Holy Synod is strongly against this, and probably he will be buried without the church rites.

REVOLT IS A FIZZLE.

Mexico Quiet All of Sunday.

"Insurrection" Scheduled for Yesterday Fails to Materialize.

Authorities Still Vigilant, But No Further Trouble Is Expected.

Anarchists Foiled at Every Point in Suspected Plot Against Republic.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 26.—The insurrection which was said to have been planned for today against the government of Mexico failed to materialize.

Sunday passed without unusual incident and while the authorities have not relaxed their vigilance, it is believed no further trouble will occur.

Special dispatches received tonight from many places, including Vera Cruz, Puebla, Pachuca and Orizaba, said everything had been quiet all day in those cities.

Two mine bosses were arrested in Pachuca and brought here. It is believed they are suspected of having been implicated in the plot against the government.

A dispatch from Pachuca said the children of three mine bosses are now in jail charged, with firing on the soldiers in the Puebla fight, are being cared for by a German woman.

WOMAN RELEASED.
One woman who was under arrest, was released after an investigation showed she had not participated in the fray.

A newspaper correspondent who returned to Mexico City tonight, said that more than forty persons were killed in the fight at the university at Orizaba. Sixteen of the dead were revolutionists, he said, and the others were police, soldiers and spectators.

The correspondent estimated the number of wounded at about 125, among them were many persons innocent of any wrongdoing, but who happened to be in the vicinity at the time the fight occurred, and were victims of stray bullets.

Reports tonight from Santa Cruz, a town between here and Puebla, said the demonstration there last night was short duration. A party of revolutionists, small in number, attempted to create a revolt, but were driven to the mountains by troops.

An attempt was made to burn a bridge on the Mexican railway near Santa Cruz, but soldiers prevented the act.

Late reports say no further disturbance was attempted there.

NO HIGHLIGHTS WERE ALLOWED IN MEXICO today, and no large gatherings of any kind in the capital.

Soldiers and police patrolled the streets, and the city was kept in a state of alert.

While the State has all the public sympathy, it is almost certain that Mrs. Klein, the detective nurse, who is regarded as the State's star witness, will not be used.

Local jurists, who are expected to be called upon to try the case, are said to be in a state of indecision.

MRS. SCHENK TO FACE COURT TODAY ON POISONING CHARGE.

Defense Will Fight to Have Her Released on Bail and Will Seek Change of Venue Because of Lurid Tales. Will Not Use Evidence of Nurse.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WHEELING (W. Va.), Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Laura Schenk, accused of poisoning her husband, John O. Schenk, by placing arsenic in his food and medicine, will be taken from her cell in the tower of the Ohio County Jail tomorrow morning to plead to the charge before Judge Jordan.

Immediately after the entering of a plea of not guilty, attorneys will begin a battle to secure her release on bail. The attorneys declare that they can raise any bail demanded.

The defense declares that if the State follows its announced plan of forcing a trial on account of Mrs. Schenk's refusal to plead to the charge of poisoning, the State has caused such lurid stories to be circulated about the prisoner that it would be impossible to secure a fair trial now.

While the State has all the public sympathy, it is almost certain that Mrs. Klein, the detective nurse, who is regarded as the State's star witness, will not be used.

DIRECT ACTIVITY.
BLOOMINGTON (Ill.) Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] R. M. Davidson was found dead today in bed at his home in Urbana.

There is strange coincidence connected with death of Davidson. A year ago his brother-in-law, Isaac Littler, with whom Davidson shared the apartment was found dead under similar circumstances.

Davidson had been ill for several days prior to his death, but Littler had not been heard from.

Davidson was born in Urbana fifty-six years ago. He was unmarried and his only surviving relatives are a brother and sister, Frank Davidson, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Littler, also of that city. He had long been affected with heart trouble and it probably caused his death.

PARKER TO TRY AGAIN.
Columbia University Professor Announces Third Undertaking to Scale Mt. McKinley.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
TACOMA (Wash.) Nov. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was announced today that Prof. Herschel Parker of Columbia University, accompanied by Belmont Brown and other members of last summer's expedition, will this winter make a third attempt to reach the summit of Mt. McKinley. The winter trip will be attempted over practically the same route followed by Thomas Lloyd and party from Fairbanks.

According to instructions received from Prof. Parker, his party will get there late in December, making the start from Valdez with dog teams early in January. One of the guides employed last summer has been authorized to get necessary teams together at Valdez.

The chief reason for Prof. Parker's third effort to reach Mt. McKinley's summit is believed to be his disbelief that Thomas Lloyd and other Fairbanks miners reached the summit early this year.

BRIAND IS SLUGGED.

Royalist Assaults the Premier.

Assailant Narrowly Escapes Death at Hands of Infuriated Crowd.

President by Side of Statesman When Latter Is Almost Killed.

Fanatic Declares Desire for Strike at the Republic Through Chief.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
PARIS, Nov. 26.—Impassioned national ceremonies in the Tuilleries Garden, in connection with the dedication of a statue erected in the memory of Jules Ferry, the French statesman, were marred by an assault upon Premier Briand, who, while walking with President Fallieres, was struck twice in the face by a missile. The Premier was not seriously hurt.

The crowd which had gathered in the Garden, set upon the Premier's assailant and only determined intervention by the Republican Guard saved him from being beaten to death.

The incident occurred at the conclusion of the exercises, which were attended by thousands. President Fallieres, Mr. Briand and the other ministers were walking towards the gate way when a man broke through the guards that lined the road, leaped to Mr. Briand's side and, raising his clenched fist high in the air, brought it down with full force upon the Premier's face. Mr. Briand reeled under the blow, but did not fall.

As friends rushed up to assist him, he said: "I am all right; we must protect my assailant."

The very audacity of the assault rendered the crowd momentarily speechless, but a shout of anger and cries of "kill him" arose quickly from all sides as he fought his way to his hands upon the assailant. He was badly injured before the guards, urged on by the Premier, succeeded in rescuing him.

The man was taken before a magistrate and gave the name of Lacour. He said he was a member of the executive committee of the Camelots du Roi, an organization of royalist extremists, and that he wished to strike at the republic in the person of Briand.

The Camelots du Roi met tonight and unanimously elected Lacour vice-president of the association in token of their sympathy and admiration of his act.

The station to Mr. Ferry was erected by the public school children of France and the columns of the statue were contributed by 1,000,000 of whom each contributed 1 cent.

SERVANT OF NATION DEAD.

Henry M. Hoyt Stricken on Duty in Canada.

Leaves Reciprocity Meeting Sick; Dies at Home.

Notable Career of Counsellor Is Ended.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Henry Martin Hoyt, counsellor for the Department of State, died at his home here at 1:30 this morning from peritonitis.

Mr. Hoyt was taken ill in Canada while there in connection with the reciprocity negotiations between the United States and that country. Since his return last Monday he had been confined to his home.

Physicians called into consultation considered the case extremely serious from the beginning. His condition was such last night that Dr. R. M. Baker, and the wife, son and daughter of Mr. Hoyt deemed it advisable to remain at the bedside throughout the night.

Shortly after midnight they noticed a perceptible weakening of the pulse beats. From then on, except for a short period during which he rallied somewhat, Mr. Hoyt sank rapidly until death came at 1:30 this morning.

ILL MORE THAN YEAR.

Mr. Hoyt, it was said, had been suffering from an intestinal trouble for more than a year, resulting eventually in the disease which caused his death.

He suffered during his last illness with perforating ulcers of the stomach, which resulted in peritonitis.

In the death chamber, besides the physicians, were Mrs. Henry M. Hoyt, Henry M. Hoyt, Jr., and Mrs. Philip P. Hixson, wife, son and daughter of the deceased.

The body will be taken to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., for burial, which will be private, following short funeral services at the residence here tomorrow. The date has not yet been fixed.

Henry Martin Hoyt was the strong hand of Philander C. Knox when the latter was Attorney-General. In fact, he made himself so indispensable when Mr. Knox became Secretary of State he lost no time in obtaining the transfer of Mr. Hoyt from the Department of Justice to his own office.

Mr. Hoyt was assigned August 21, 1907, to the post of counsellor of the Department. In that field he rendered invaluable service to the government.

TRAINED LEGAL MIND.

Mr. Hoyt had a thoroughly trained legal mind. His record of service is bright. He was at the elbow of the Attorney-General in the prosecution of many of the cases which involved governmental attack upon the great corporations for violations of the anti-trust law.

Mr. Hoyt came into the Department of Justice as an Assistant Attorney-General in 1897. He was appointed by President McKinley and served in that position until March 31, 1902, when he was appointed Solicitor-General by President Roosevelt to succeed John Richardson.

While he was Solicitor-General, Mr. Hoyt prepared and argued several noted cases with success. Many of them were of a constitutional character and the trace of his work is left in the law of the land.

One case in particular, in which he fought and won, but did not serve long enough in office to see completed, was the famous contempt of court case against Sheriff Joseph Shippe and other men of Chattanooga, Tenn. His success in office, which he enjoyed, was dead, moved sentence in that case.

CAREER OF AN AMERICAN.

Mr. Hoyt was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., December 2, 1854, being the son of Gen. H. M. Hoyt, once governor of the commonwealth. He was educated in the public schools, graduated from Yale in 1878, took a post graduate course in the University of Pennsylvania in 1881 and afterward was admitted to the bar and practiced law in Pittsburgh. In 1883 he married Anna, daughter of Col. Morton McMichael, one of the foremost citizens of Philadelphia.

He moved that year to New York to become assistant cashier of the United States National Bank, but after three years returned to Pennsylvania to become treasurer and afterward president of the Investment Company of Philadelphia.

In 1894 he resumed the practice of law in Philadelphia, but came to Washington in 1897 to accept an appointment as Assistant Attorney-General. This post he held until 1902, when he was made Solicitor-General.

DRUNKEN DUCKS CALLED SPORT.

ILLINOISANS HAVE NEW GAME FOR GAMBLING.

Mallards, Kept From Water for Two Days, Led to Beer and First One to Become Too Intoxicated to Stand Is Declared Winner—Quart Apiece Decides Bet.

MADISON (Ill.) Nov. 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Cock fighting and kindred sports being under the ban in Illinois, it has been left to Madison to come to the front with a new diversion for those who seek unusual Sunday afternoon entertainment. If you live in Madison and own a "booby fighting duck" you may take on a match any Sunday and wager all sorts of odds.

George Ulsmar, a saloon man, is the latest Madisonian to issue a challenge in the new sport. This afternoon of the more favored assembled in Ulsmar's place to witness an event between Ulsmar's prize green head and an unknown mallard of gigantic size and crest. Both birds had been kept away from water for two days in preparation for the contest and when led to huge basins of beer laid on the floor, went to it with the gusto of professional tipplers.

After drinking a quart of beer apiece the two ducks went through a series of side-splitting antics that put the average human "booby" to blush. Within fifteen minutes the "unknown" toddled over to a corner behind the bar-room stove, turned over on its back and wiggled its webbed feet in fast approaching stupor. The Ulsmar duck was then declared the victor and conviviality among Ulsmar's friends followed.

SCHOOLMARRIAGE SCARCITY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ABERDEEN (S. D.) Nov. 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Scarcity of school teachers is reported in many sections of South Dakota and many schools are closed as a result, notwithstanding the fact that teachers' wages are higher than ever before in the State. One cause of the scarcity is the fact that several hundred young women teachers have availed themselves of the opportunity to take courses in the reservation country in northwestern South Dakota and are now either on their homesteads or have quit teaching in order to prepare for going on their claims. Cupid also continues to deplete the ranks of the young women teachers to a remarkably large extent.

OIL FOR NAVY, SAYS EVANS.

"Fighting Bob" Boosts Southern California Product—Says Only Tramps Will Use Coal Soon.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "Fighting Bob" Evans has given up the salt water and taken to oil. From promoting war to promoting oil, Evans is a long jump but the retired rear-admiral has made it without a splash.

The former commander of the United States navy and sixteen of his capital friends arrived in Chicago from New York at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon and spent a few hours at the Blackstone Hotel. The party is on the way to inspect the property of the California Consolidated Oil Company near Bakerfield. Admiral Evans is president of this concern.

"In Southern California the independent oil men have been so successful that we have no fear from the trust there," said Mr. Evans. "Ten torpedo boats and all the battleships that have been built within the last two years have been equipped with oil burners. The old ships are being remodeled so that they can burn oil."

Russian navy derives its propelling power from oil. By 1915, when the "Panama" is in operation, vessels equipped with oil burners will burn oil.

thing in the show, accompanied as it is by Hazel Boyd's fiery acrobatic dancing.

Muggins Davies, in a Dutch make-up, "yotts over" to a new song in a style which demonstrates her really remarkable soubrette—one who depends not only upon numerous theatrical but personal subtlety as well.

Maria Golden, in a broad comedy character role and a very revealing as the seven-league boots of Jack the giant-killer, came near stealing the honors of that only once-a-week event. If it hadn't been for the Hazel twins, one of whom, poor little kid, skinned her nose by a fall on the stage in the last act.

Mr. Hartman plays himself with the most admirable union. Walter De Lame is equally the real, for Mr. Hartman again astounds with some gorgeous Paris gowns.

The Burbank company saw one of its members take French leave Saturday—viz., Jack Belgrave, who did not appear for the performance of "The Yankee Prince," the latest of the plays which notified them by wire that his sweetheart had been injured in an accident in San Francisco and that he was hurrying to her bedside. Mr. Hartford took Mr. Belgrave's part, which fortunately was but a minor role at fifteen minutes' notice, and also annexed the much longer role which he was to have played in "A Grand Army Man."

"The Love Tales of Hoffman" will be offered by the Bevan troupe at the Auditorium tonight.

Tomorrow night will be devoted to the first presentation of "La Boheme."

The Naxosva engagement at Hamburger's Majestic Theater begins this evening with the first presentation in Los Angeles of Ibsen's "Little Eyolf," which will be seen tonight, tomorrow night, and at the Wednesday matinee. Of this play, one of Ibsen's latest, Humecker, the great Ibsen authority in America, writes: "The effect of 'Little Eyolf' is distinctly optimistic. Hope is preached on every page. Ibsen has girded at the conventionalities of the marriage relation in other plays. This is his Kreutzer Sonata. He shows the selfishness of a parent's love. The parents confess that they never truly understood their dear child, for they never knew each other. The lesson read is that parents owe much to each other, and as much to their children." "Little Eyolf" depicts the tyranny of passion. The other plays to be given are "A Doll's House," Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Thursday matinee, and "The Fairy Tale," Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee.

Not only as a social function of uncommon interest, but as a theatrical event of prime importance, the production at the Belasco Theater tonight for the first time on any stage, of Lella Jurton Webb's military play, "The Case of Sergeant Wilde" is attracting a vast amount of attention. The theatrical firms of Cohan & Harris and Harris & Hartman, who represent the lives play the performance with the view to submitting reports on the availability of the play for an early New York production, while Mr. Miller will be represented by a friend who has authority to negotiate for the American and English rights for the play in the event that it comes through the fiery furnace of critical approval.

Mr. Stone, Miss Gordon and the other members of the company will have their final rehearsal of "The Case of Sergeant Wilde" this morning at which the complete equipment of scenery will be made use of and the day-dresses will wear the military apparel that will be in evidence at the regular performance of the play. Several members of the company and the specialists at the rehearsal and will be shown over the stage pictures and the scenery as well as the general military atmosphere of the piece with the critical eye of experience, so that when the play is given its initial performance the military portion of the presentation will be as nearly correct as possible.

The new night's performance of "The Case of Sergeant Wilde" will be continued on Seventeenth Page.)

Live Doings in Field of Sports.

FANS WITNESS FUNNY GAMES.

Winter Leaguers Make Hits and Errors Galore.

Giants Drop Eye-Opener and Win Second Battle.

Exciting Day for Enthusiasts at Vernon Park.

Doyle, 11; Giants, 1. Morning game.

They played some funny ball out at the Vernon grounds yesterday and if the fellow who invented the game had been in the house he would not have answered to his name if a messenger boy had brought the long expected letter about the death of a rich aunt.

About the only reason the second game was not failed off had been because the police department of Vernon was taking his day off. Sickness, death, fire in the family or absence from town could not be an excuse.

Why, in this second struggle the Giants made four hits, eleven runs and four errors, and the Doyle, ten errors, seven runs and eight errors. Can you beat it? It was a real struggle all right for the Vernon team did its best to make more runs than errors but failed miserably. In any event they did not.

Tonnison pitched for the Doyle and the Giants simply played him to pieces. In the first inning they hit a double, two home runs and a single, and Kid Mohler's juggle of a grounder helped them make five runs. The Doyle fell on Gatewood of the Giants in about the same manner for they made four runs from three singles, a double and Moore's miff of a fly to center. These things show about the kind of a game it was.

It was the real thing, however, in the way of excitement, and the largest crowd that ever squeezed into the Vernon grounds sat for two hours and yelled their hearts out at the performance. The majority of this crowd was made up of colored persons and these had the time of their lives in rooting for a victory for the Giants, and they did it.

There is really not much to say about a game in which one team starts out by making five runs in the first inning and the other one comes right back in its half of the tuning with four runs. It would be about as bad as writing one of the latest books of popular erotic fiction to give a history of what did happen for it would be a lot easier to tell what did not. There was everything in the game but a balk, triple play, a three-bagger and a hit batsman, and when it is observed that the Doyle made eight errors at least and the Giants four, it can readily be guessed that there were many contributions to the gaiety of the assembled masses. Just look at the score and forget what made it possible.

LOP-SIDED EYE OPENER.
The first game in the morning was just as much of a thriller, for Thorsen, pitching for the Doyle, had the Giants looking like ants and one of the Giants hits, which was Lane's double in the eighth, was followed by two infield outs which scored Lane for the only Giant run.

Ball started to leave for the Giants, but he had enough of it in four innings. With one out in the first inning, a hit by pitcher, a steal, Cravath's triple to center and Tennant's drive scored two runs. Ellis' home run, the right fence, a pass, two errors and two singles made three more runs in the third. In the fifth, Langford, who relieved Ball and looked even better to the Doyle, for they made six runs of him, four of these arriving in the eighth from five singles. Notwithstanding the seven errors in the game, there was some very good work shown, Cravath, Gill and Deidon being the particular stars. The one-sided score robbed the game of much of its interest.

Jimmy Toman umpired both games and was good and bad by turns. The scores:

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

LIVE WIRES. FUNNY MEN'S CLUB LATEST. REAL SIMON-PURE HUMORISTS BAND IN PASADENA.

First Exhibition Will Be Given on Tournament Night and Original Stunts Are Promised—Anti-Sunday Postoffice Petition in Circulation—New Church Dedicated.

(Office of The Times, 25 S. Raymond Avenue.)
PASADENA, Nov. 21.—The new Funny Men's Club, which is destined to make the Crown City famous, will be organized tonight at the Board of Trade rooms, according to the statement of the promoters last night.
Nearly all of the "live wires" in town
have been interviewed on the question and so far not a dissenting voice has been heard. The movement had been announced already by the Board of Trade, Merchants' Association and Tournament of Roses Association, and it is hoped that the Mayor and City Council will join in the happy throng.
To date the organization has not been named, but a number of the "wise guys" who have made themselves locally famous by conjuring up ideas when necessity required, are busily at work and promise something "rich, racy and original," something which will be indicative of the ideas and at the same time be perfectly in keeping with the Pasadena plan.
The first exhibition of the skill of the members as original funny men will be given on Tournament night or the evening following the Tournament of Roses.
The entertainment will be a burlesque safari affair; the details are not yet framed. One suggestion is that it will be sort of a combination burlesque and grotesque parade, together with vaudeville stunts. Every block or so the great parade will be stopped long enough for the comedians to pull off a vaudeville stunt, when the assemblage will move on to the next stopping place.
A temporary organization will be effected tonight. Temporary officers will be elected and committees appointed to take charge of different phases of the work.

POSTOFFICE PETITION.
Every church, school in Pasadena was requested yesterday from the various pulpits to sign the anti-Sunday postoffice petition prepared by the clerks and letter carriers of the Pasadena postoffice and directed to the Postmaster-General at Washington, requesting that the Pasadena postoffice remain closed on Sunday. The petitions were liberally signed in all churches. In some places the announcement was made that if 200 signers were received Postmaster Wood agreed to close the postoffice.

It was also stated that if the petition was granted, the patrons of the postoffice could still get their mail in private boxes, and the postoffice would receive their mail just as they do now.
It was further asserted that practically every postoffice employee will get his Sunday off. The movement is backed according to the statements of the various preachers, by the Ministerial Association, Merchants' Association and others.

Inasmuch as some of these statements are at variance with the facts, signed by Postmaster Wood, which was read before the Merchants' Association
last week, when that organization voted in favor of the movement, it is 12. Postmaster Wood was interviewed last night and said:
"Many of these statements are not true and many of the things which are attributed to me are all wrong. I have not committed myself to anything. I have said if petitions were presented to me they will receive careful attention.
Three thousand names to the Pasadena postoffice, a city of 21,000 people, will not close the postoffice. I have made no statement whatever regarding any number."

"It will be impossible to close the postoffice tight. Mail must be collected from the various homes. Mail boxes made up and dispatched on trains, and the incoming mail must be attended to.
To do that work one-fourth of our employees are required. Regarding the hotels and private boxes their mail, I will say in order to do that and not operate the general delivery window would be discrimination and in violation of the regulations. I have said the front door will not be locked, and people are entitled to their boxes, but I have not said
the mail will be put in them if this petition is recognized. No, we must collect all like, and if one gets mail they must all get their mail, poor and rich alike."

NEW CHURCH DEDICATED.
The new Christian Science Church
on Oakland Avenue was dedicated and opened for the first service yesterday.
The building has been under construction for over two years and is one of the largest and most beautiful in Pasadena.
According to the rules of the Church
no Christian Science church can be dedicated until it is free from debt.
At 10 o'clock Saturday night the sum of $200 necessary to pay off the debt was on hand. So happy were the members that a telegram was sent direct from the pulpit to Mary Baker Eddy stating the glad news. The cost of the building was $184,500. The last $14,500 was paid in Friday and Saturday. The ground floor, which is 30 by 110 feet, is the greatest in the city. It has a heating capacity of 1400. The architecture is Ionic.
The dedicatory address yesterday
was delivered by Henry Van Arsdale.
DR. BURDETTE'S SERMON.
One of the very interesting sermons
of yesterday morning was that delivered by Dr. Burdette at the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. His subject was "Church Almsgiving." The text was taken from Genesis 49:23:
"Everyone according to his blessing
he blessed them."

"There were three great blessings
mentioned in the Bible," said Dr. Burdette. "They are the blessing of God to Abraham, the blessing of God to Jacob, and the blessing of God to Moses and the Tribes, and the blessing of the Lord Jesus as He ascended into the clouds. The human race has been on a pilgrimage. It is restless and moves from place to place, so to speak.
The first mercantile transaction is mentioned in the Bible; the first real estate deal was the purchase of the burying place of Abraham.
"Jacob's sons gave him much trouble.
There were twelve of them, from three mothers, and they were not all in one characteristic. For the most part they inherited their traits
from their mothers. Jacob was a peculiar character. His idea of power was the control over his family. His idea of wealth was the value of his holdings, and his idea of home was a black tent pitched near his flocks.
His idea of religion can be determined by the manner in which he distributed his blessings.
"Of the sons of Jacob the oldest one was Reuben, who received the right of his father. Simon and Levi never had any portion of their father's property. Issachar was a business man.
He did not stir up strife and war. Politicians make war, but not merchants."

Dan was a soldier and he went out to the northern provinces and took them for his own use. Naphtali was a
"No two blessings were given alike.
It is the greatest blessing in this world that all people are alike. The same like a picket fence or a paved street.
Somehow you like the landscape because it is varied. The music of the drum is the music of marching, of war.
It is the same everywhere. You like the music of a person because there is something personal in it. You can often tell the mood of a friend by the way he or she plays music.
"You cannot make music with fifty flutes or 500 violins. You must have harmony. Some would think that in our church we cannot have harmony
because of the many kinds of people, but that is the very thing which makes them strong. Take a private club where they require the pedigree of applicants for membership in order to get in members who are just like the old members, and you have a dull and dead organization. We have the same thing in our asylums for the feeble-minded."

So in the church we have all sorts and conditions of men and women.
Some like music and others like prayer.
Some will not get up and give testimonials, and others want to be on the floor all the time. Some are hurt by the least little thing and others cannot be hurt. One woman will be happy and singing in a capital voice, and another woman will cry while talking.
"In the church some are poor and cannot get rich, while others get rich
simply because they cannot help it.
And so it goes, and so we have a strong organization because of the cause of the various kinds of blessings.
When you pour all of these great blessings of Jacob on the people you have a great world. God made all these for a definite purpose."

El Monte Stirred by Murder as the Result of a Brawl—Bootleggers Ply Lively Trade in Dry Town
and a Crusade Has Been Started There.

EL MONTE, Nov. 20.—The fatal result of a drunken brawl today has aroused the citizens, who are led to believe that bootleggers are plying a lively trade among the Mexicans, and that illicit whisky is responsible for the deed.

G. Gutierrez, a Mexican, was stabbed in the abdomen by a companion shortly after midnight. Dr. P. Saylin dressed the wound and had the man sent to the Receiving Hospital, Los Angeles, where it was seen that the wound was fatal.
Gutierrez died this afternoon. The knife used had penetrated the heart.
The assailant escaped.

At 7 o'clock this morning an Indian laborer quarreled with his wife and seriously stabbed her under the right eye. The couple had been drinking.
The wife, who lives on Jackson street,
ran, fled, hotly pursued by a constable.
El Monte is a dry town, but the Mexicans living in the vicinity are obtaining liquor from some source and the result is frequent brawls. A Spaniard has been using his influence to prevent the Mexicans indulging in liquor and the church people are backing him in his crusade. A frequent appeal is being made to the constable
when the Spaniard is addressing a crowd, it is no unusual thing for workers to be offered drink.

The death of Gutierrez accentuates
the crusade which from now on will be strenuously fought.

Merchants of Venice Arrange to Take Care of After the Road Race Visitors.

VENICE, Nov. 20.—The Merchants
of Venice are planning for the entertainment of an overflow crowd that is expected to scatter itself along the sand at the conclusion of the Santa Monica automobile road races next Thursday. Aeronaut Morton will make an ascension in a gas balloon. He has not been in the air for many years, but he has had a leg broken at that time while descending after a Sunday afternoon trip into the blue domes. Committee have also been appointed to arrange for a street fair
and carnival to be held during Christmas holidays. Officers have been nominated for the new year as follows: Andrew Lee, president; F. L.
Stittman, vice-president; B. B.
Brown, secretary; D. Braunberger, treasurer.

Not taking kindly to the change in the rates charged by the Edison Electric Company for gas, the merchants of Venice have formally called upon the City Trusts to enforce the of the city ordinance regulating the quality of gas and fixing the rate to be charged. This ordinance makes it the duty of the consumer to secure gas at a rate below $1.10 per 1000 feet, the present price.

SAILOR DROWNED.

Falls Overboard at San Pedro and Sinks Before Mates Could Locate Him.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 20.—James Peterson, aged 33 years, first officer of the schooner Meteor, discharging a lumber cargo in the inner harbor, fell overboard and was drowned shortly after midnight.
Peterson attempted to step from the vessel to the wharf, missed his footing and fell into the bay. Men on the Meteor heard his cry for help, but in the darkness were unable to locate him.
The steamer Lakmo arriving this morning stirred up the water with her propeller near Peterson and he was rescued.
Peterson, a native of Sweden, and Edward Lusk, local fisherman, were arrested early this morning charged with having lobsters in their possession. Several hundred lobsters were confiscated.

Charles Hugg, a Chinese vegetable peddler, was held up last night by two men at Sixth and Mesa streets and robbed of $50. He was unable to give the police a good description of the footpads.

CLERK FAILS TO BOARD MOVING TROLLEY TRAIN.

Wheels Crush Leg of San Bernar-dine Man at Long Beach—Bather Rescued From the Sea—Woman's Hair Acts as Cushion and Prevents Serious Injury.

LONG BEACH, Nov. 21.—O. W.
Wright, a young man from San Bernar-dine, will be a cripple for life because of an attempt this morning to board an electric car running at a twenty mile clip on American avenue.
Wright, who is a Santa Fe office clerk, came here for a day at the beach. After calling on friends, he was enroute to the beach when a southbound electric train of three cars
in charge of Conductor McDonald and Motorman Rothrock, came along.
The cars do not stop at Eighth street,
but Wright was ignorant of this as he raced across the street in front of the train, then turned and waited for it to stop.

Seeing that it would not do so,
he made a grab at the guard rail of the first car, but missed it, the wheels
passing over his left foot, crushing it.
The victim was attended by Gas company surgeon and then rushed to a local hospital where the leg was amputated below the knee.

BATHER SAVED.
A visitor to the beach, while in bathing this afternoon, was seized with cramps beyond the breaker line and was being carried out by the tide
toward the pier, when life saver Scott rescued him. He declined to give his name.

THANKSGIVING DAY EVENTS.

Long Beach expects a big day on Thanksgiving. In the morning union thanksgiving services will be held at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. H. K. Booth delivering the sermon and a consolidated choir furnishing the music. In the afternoon will be the last football game of the season between Long Beach High and the U. S. C. prep. The local team has not lost a game this season
and is expected to win the championship of the interscholastic league.

On the beach in the afternoon, Eugene Savage, the balloonist, will make a slide for life down a wire from the spiral way to the band stand, and at night will repeat the slide wrapped in blazing cotton. In the evening there will be a masked carnival at the Lantecleer. At 7:30 there will be a chancelier parade on the Pike, ending at the Majestic pavilion, where a chancelier ball will be given.

WANT PREP SCHOOL.

The Parent Teacher's association of the high school is discussing the advisability of asking the Board of Education to establish a preparatory or intermediate high school for this district. The idea is to take the seventh and eighth grades out of the high schools and add to the school studies
special preparation for the high school
work.

Supt. Graham is a warm advocate of the plan and says the greatest cause of students dropping their studies after entering high school is because they are discouraged at the vast amount of heavy work so suddenly thrust upon them.

GETS HURRY-UP ORDERS.

T. F. Curt, internal revenue agent of the Insular Treasury Department at San Juan, Porto Rico, who has been visiting his family and who expected to pass the winter here, received imperative recall orders this week and left Friday. His return was necessary owing to damage done
on the island by storms.

SCHOOL PETITION.

The petition for a new school district east of Long Beach, to be known as the Bixby district, has been withdrawn and the boundaries of the Long Beach district will be extended all the way to the ocean. The Long Beach school board will provide a building and land.

General Gordon Lodge, Sons of St.
George, has elected as officers Harry Sheard, president; George Harris, vice-president; R. J. Bostwick, secretary; Andrew Carey, treasurer; John Miller, messenger; Rev. R. B. Gooden, treasurer; Lee Higgins, sentinel; Dr. A. C.
Sellery, physician.

HEAVY DEBATE.

Next Wednesday evening will occur
the first interscholastic debate between teams of Long Beach and Anaheim high schools. Edwin Hullinger and Harry McLean will represent Long Beach on the negative side, the question being that the entrance of the Panama canal should be fortified by the City Trusts. Opponents will be Miss L. Everson, J. L. Set and wife,
P. Chandler, Charles H. Clark, H. Side-bottom, C. O. Whitmore, H. Blum-enberg.

FACES LEGAL QUESTION.

South Pasadena Wants to Know If It Has Right to Help Los Angeles.

SOUTH PASADENA, Nov. 20.—Not until the determination of the question whether the city of South Pasadena has the power and is legally right in spending money for improvements outside the city will the City Trusts be able to take cash out of the general fund
to help pay for the improved Arroyo bridge.
This was the result of a discussion at the last board meeting. It was decided to wait until the Board of Public Works of Los Angeles has first decided this question.

INDIGESTION IS ENDED FOREVER.

OUT-OF-ORDER STOMACHS FEEL FINE FIVE MINUTES AFTER TAKING A LITTLE
DIAPEPSIN.

Heartburn, Stomach Gas, Dyspepsia
and Headache vanish before you realize it—Thousands of Readers of The Times will find a permanent cure for Stomach trouble at a very nominal cost.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though
as harmless and pleasant as candy,
will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or rises, belching, Gas on Stomach,
Heartburn, Headaches from stomach Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist
a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would have no indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and,
besides, you would not need laxatives
or liver pills to keep your stomach
and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapepsin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handkerchief or more useful article in the house.

BULLET PIERCED.

FUSILLADE BRINGS POLICE ON A HURRY CALL.

Youthful Riflemen Practice at San Bernardino Innocently of Danger to Life—Matron Narrowly Escapes Death at Their Hands—Range Trees to Be Planted.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, of No. 235 South G street, owes her life to a rare streak of good fortune. While passing through her dining-room this morning, one shot after another was fired at the house, five bullets piercing the south wall and three lodging in the wall on the opposite side of the room, missing Mrs. Allen's head by the narrowest margin. Alarmed for her safety, Mrs. Allen sent in a police call. Then she took refuge in a room on the north side of the dining room. The police found that a number of Mexican boys were responsible.

When the riflemen were rounded up it was learned that the shots were fired by more boys, who claimed to be ignorant of the danger to life. The rifles were confiscated.

YOUNG RANGE TREES.

The government nursery in Lytle Creek is preparing to distribute 150,000 young trees to the rangers on the Angel forest reserve to be set out along the mountains. Besides this big distribution, employees of the forestry department have been busy planting tons of tree seed, mostly conifers.

Prof. Harrison Savage has just completed a trip through the various national reserves, and states that nowhere has he found anything that should cause discouragement to the forestry department. He is a warm friend of the rangers, and declares that those rangers who have advocated their extermination are not accustomed to grapple with the reforestation problem.

TO LOOK OVER SITES.

J. W. Roberts, special agent of the Treasury Department, will be in this city next Saturday to look over the fourteen proposed postoffice sites. The offers involve locations in every part of the business district, and even extend into what is now a "art of the residence section."

ROSEBERRY GROUP BOUGHT.

The Roseberry mining group, near Otis, has been bought by A. C. Stanley, of San Jose, for $2,000 cash. Stanley has gone East to secure mining machinery, expecting to install a 10-stamp mill on the property this winter.

J. W. Chapman, general traffic manager of the California-Pacific Steamship Line, will reach here tomorrow morning to confer with the Tri-County Rate Bureau. He is expected to discuss terminal problems and explain the master of shipping from the Atlantic seaboard. It is also understood he will discuss a proposed trial shipment of citrus fruit by water.

TEACHERS ARE READY.

Interesting Programme Arranged for the Annual Institute at Riverside.

High School Auditorium.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 20.—The annual County and City Teachers' Institute will be held in the auditorium of the Riverside High School tomorrow morning. Addresses on popular and educational subjects will take up the greater part of the afternoon sessions. One of the principal speakers will be Dr. Elwood C. Cullen, of the department of education of Stanford University. Ralph W. Lyle, of Los Angeles, will give a lecture on "The Violin," and Joseph Daniels, the librarian of the Riverside City Library, will make the closing address.

At the morning sessions, the teachers will divide into groups for special instruction with a well-known speaker at the head of each section. The institute will be presided over by Raymond C. Cullen, Superintendent of Schools, and A. N. Wheeler, City Superintendent.

Joseph Beal has bought the Crescent block, on the south side of Eighth street, between Lemon and Lime streets, erected a little over a year ago by Fred H. Freeman and S. S. Patterson.

a benefit under the auspices of General Relief Committee of the Independent Order of Foresters.

Otis Skinner has turned over his play of last season, "Your Humble Servant," for the use of Lewie Stone and the Balcony company.

"The Fortune Hunter," than which no better comedy has been written in America in many years, will begin its second week at the Mason Opera-house tonight, via the splendid talents of Fred Niblo, Frank Bacon, Al Hefwyn et al.

Oliver Morosco, who will be at the the last part of this week, announced telegraphically that he has made arrangements whereby he will have the call upon any of the Shubert plays he may wish to use, for a long term of years.

This is a contract of signal importance.

Merriment will characterize the new numbers on the Orpheum programme for this Thanksgiving week, so that the holiday spirit will be rampant. The bill is headed by Augusta Glone, whose reputation in the delineation of character types and in spoken songs is international. Willard Simms & Company in that funny wall-paper comedy, "Finder's Furnished Flat," is another mirth provoker.

The all-star cast breaks into vaudeville here next week, when "The White Slave" comes as headliner, with McKee Rankin, Lionel Barrymore and Doris Rankin, all of whom have starred on their own account, as interludes. This marks the high tide of specially selected casts for the twice-a-day.

Pavlova and Mordkin, at the head of the most distinguished dancing aggregation ever gathered for travel, will occupy the Auditorium stage during the last four nights of next week. The seat sale for these celebrities will open at the Auditorium box-office this morning.

With a new bill of six acts, Sullivan and Considine promise another week of entertaining vaudeville at the Los Angeles Theater. The stellar attraction of the new programme, opening this afternoon, will be Franklin Arndell and his company offering the humorous political comedy sketch, "The Suffragette."

"Alfred the Great has come to town. Not he of British renown, and the only English King to bear the title of 'Great.' No, the Los Angeles arrival is only knee high to his late majesty of England, and neither in the color of his skin, the length of his fingers, or his features, does he resemble his hero of the past, and although he may be a descendant of Alfred's forefathers he is certainly not a descendant of the King himself, for he is a monkey. The Los Angeles visitor will receive his friends at Pantages this week, and dress in the height of fashion, wears a scarf-pin, patent leather shoes, and adds to his male costume a boutonniere and a heavy black veil. He can smoke with Gertrude Atherton, and write his name as well as many school boys or the late Horace Greeley; he knows how to manipulate the typewriter, and uses a handkerchief with the air of a grand seigneur. But what he does best, and is most remarkable, is that while he shakes hands with men and women indifferently, he always presses a lady's hand to his lips, but never that of a man, and he never makes any mistakes as to the sex of his guest. He is a great monkey, even if he is like his namesake, the great King Alfred will hold daily stage receptions while here at Pantages.

The Countess Tamara de Swirsky will make her first appearance in her classic dances at the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon. Not a small part of the programme will be the orchestra under the direction of Henry Ohlmeier.

BANNING.

BANNING, Nov. 19.—J. M. Westerfield has petitioned the Superior Court to be appointed administrator for the estate of the late Robert McKey who died at Banning leaving property valued at $10,000.

F. E. Dudley, formerly of the O. K. Market, has traded his interest in the Coachella Valley for a home and market at Hollywood and will reside in the latter city.

At the annual meeting of the Banning Water Company the following directors were elected: E. A. Clough, E. L. Robertson, D. H. Gates, Robert Fountain, C. D. Hamilton. E. A. Clough was chosen president; W. G. Mattjeschek, secretary, and Ed. Ell, janitor.

J. K. Waters has purchased a home site near the Baptist parsonage and will erect a cottage. Mrs. Maude Caldwell has bought from Harvey Johnson a central location for a bungalow.

The Twenty-nine Palms Reduction Company has been formed to operate in the local mining district and will put in a mill.

HEMET.

HEMET, Nov. 20.—The Hemet Driving Club tendered Frank Holloway, president of the Board of City Trustees, a banquet at the Hotel Hemet last night. Mr. Holloway was driver of Wilbur Low, the yearling stallion who smashed the world's record at the race meet recently held in Phoenix, Arizona.

The opera-house was crowded to the doors last night. The drawing card was the comedy, "The Schoolmistress," played by local talent. Prof. Dollard and Mrs. Harrison Spaulding took the leading roles.

The Hemet Canning Company, launched last spring by a few enterprising fruit growers, has proven to be a financial success. It has shipped close to thirty cars of canned apricots and peaches to the eastern markets and has orders enough on hand to warrant the enlargement of the plant.

William McIntosh and Jesse M. Crow will leave for Mexico the first of the week.
